Required Documentation

Please attach a single document to your e-mail along with this completed application. Include in this document:

- Your name and contact information.
- At least three digital images that represent what you plan to sell at the market. Close-up shots of individual pieces are especially recommended. Provide a title, description and tentative price range of each item shown.
- Also include one digital image of your booth display (if you have not had a booth display, provide a simple sketch of your plan for the display).
- In addition, please answer the following questions:
 - 1) List all art media used (e.g. watercolor, oil, ink, clay, etc.).
 - 2) Briefly describe your work and the process involved in creating it.
 - 3) Tell us about your training, your development as an artisan, your artistic goals, and your inspiration.
 - 4) Indicate why you think the Goshen Market is an ideal audience for your work.
 - 5) Do you intend to participate as a partial or full-season vendor?
- Heritage arts are encouraged.

Submission:

The committee prefers that you e-mail the complete packet of materials (including this application and the required documentation) to jury@goshenmarket.org.

If you do not have Internet access, you may send the packet by mail. All requested documents must be received on or before March 1st of the calendar year to be considered for the current season. Mail to: The Land of Goshen Community Market, P.O. Box 1030, Edwardsville, IL 62025-1030. Please call 618-307-6045 and leave a message that a packet has been mailed.

Jury Procedure:

Work will be evaluated on the quality of craftsmanship, originality of the design, professional presentation, and awareness of the market's audience. Only local, original, hand-made fine art will be considered. All applicants will be considered through a jury process by the Land of Goshen Community Market Committee and contacted with a decision following this review. Artists may be requested to attend a jury committee session to share their work in person.
